CHAIR'S WELCOME

Welcome to December's All About Cleeve in which we have tried to bring together a mix of local information with seasonal ingredients. You can find out more about major housing developments on the edge of Cleeve, and enjoy a Christmas quiz. We also have a recipe for you to try and do please share any favourite recipes that you have that we can include in future editions. We have an update from Court de Wyck school and, of course, notices about Christmas services and the pantomime. Looking ahead to next year we have some articles lined up about WW2 air crashes in and around Cleeve and would welcome any other historical features. Before that, however, we wish you all a festive and fun December and a Merry Christmas.

COURT DE WYCK CHURCH SCHOOL UPDATE

As the children broke up for October break, Mrs Baker-Brown reflected on how the School ethos of Growing Together, Belonging and Achieving has been alive across the School. Year 5 and 6 pupils have demonstrated wonderful teamwork and responsibility through their reading Buddy sessions with younger children. There has also been great excitement and curiosity during our whole-school theme day. "Race across the World", where the children explored different continents through geography, art, music and culture. Achievement has been celebrated in many ways – most recently in Kestrel Class, who confidently shared their learning in collective worship. Their effort and pride were clear for all to see, and they should feel really proud of themselves.

Looking ahead to Christmas, there is a busy time ahead! A trip to the pantomime, the Christmas Church Service at Holy Trinity, a visit by members of the Holy Trinity congregation for Christmas in a Box, a Christmas production for parents by Robins and Goldfinch and Kingfisher and Kestrel Christmas Cracker and finally the Christmas parties.

HALLOWEEN AT CLEEVE VILLAGE HALL

October 31st saw the hall packed for a special live music Spooky themed quiz courtesy of Piano man Mark Feven. With lots of dressing up from adults and children alike, entertaining rounds of questions, interspersed with some singalong classics, the hall was transformed into a Ghoulish party! With a lively bar and well supported raffle, this has been a great fundraiser for the Hall and we wish to thank everyone who came along to support us.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Remembrance Day at Holy Trinity church was led by Father Jeremy Hellier, initially by the War Memorial at 11am, where the names of those who had fallen in the two World Wars were read out.

Back inside the church, Father Jeremy greatly praised the displays of flowers and poppies put together by Gill, Ann and Jen and the tableau made by June, as part of a thoughtful and moving sermon which also included reflections on his own army service and that of his two sons who currently serve in the Army and the Royal Navy.

GARDENING TIPS FOR DECEMBER

Dead-head pansies, Violas and Cyclamen to encourage more flowers.

The autumn sown sweet peas should have the tips pinched out after the second pair of true leaves open.

Prune out old wood to rejuvenate shrubs. Wisteria pruning can be completed now along with vines.

CLAVERHAM FUTURE IS OUR CONCERN

Claverham Future is the action group established to gather evidence for opposing unsuitable new developments in Claverham. The group has been collecting evidence to oppose unsuitable developments, posting on the Claverham Future FaceBook page and building the list of email addresses for residents. We recognise these developments will have an impact on Cleeve in terms of road traffic, schools and other general infrastructure.

Planning applications are expected for High Street from Clarion/Latimer and Claverham Road from Wain Homes end November/early December. Each developer is proposing 130 homes. We are not disputing the need for additional houses, but we do not believe the land identified is suitable. There are access issues, insufficient pavement provision, pupil numbers at the local school will increase, the land is valuable farm land and hosts endangered species, and there are many more aspects.

Once the planning applications are in Claverham Future will need to act quickly and circulate evidence and sample letters to residents so they can form and submit their own objections. It is critical that every resident submits objections and that they are written independently. Anyone over 16 can submit objections but each objection should be tailored to appear individual. Planning officers are quick to pick up on copied objections and will ignore them. It is also very important that objections are not based on personal emotive subjects as sadly these carry no weight with planning officers. Objections must be based on fact and where possible carry evidence. This is where Claverham Future will help residents by supplying the evidence and helping with template letters.

You can help by submitting to Claverham Future evidence for objections – any experience you have had with traffic incidents, road safety, difficulty due to lack of amenities, damage to ecology, or flooding, etc.

Claverham Future needs you to fight for our right to village life. Join our FaceBook Group Claverham Future and to join our mailing list please email claverhamfuture@gmail.com

CHRISTMAS

Messenger

December 2025

Behold, I bring you good news of great joy!
Today in David's town a Saviour has been born to you;
he is Christ the Lord.

At Christmas, we find joy in the good news of the birth of Jesus. But we also find joy in other things that perhaps we don't talk about much in church. You know the tree, the decorations, the presents, family traditions, and, of course, the food! At Christmas, God becomes one of us, and in the birth and life of Jesus, the divine is made visible to us. But I wonder — could the opposite also be true? Could the ordinary things that bring us joy at Christmas remind us of the heavenly joy the angels sang about long ago — and give us a glimpse of God?

This Christmas, when you open presents, will it remind you of God's generous love and the greatest gift of all, Jesus? When you laugh at a pantomime, will you sense God's delight in our joy? When you hang decorations or light candles will you glimpse the God who brings light into the darkness? When you eat delicious food will it remind you of God's generosity and goodness?

As you celebrate in all the ordinary, joyful ways of Christmas — with presents, laughter, food, and family — may you find more than just happiness — may you find a glimpse of God's love made real in Jesus, and know that this joy is for you. If you'd like to hear more of that good news of great joy, a warm welcome awaits you at our Christmas services.

GARDENING TIPS FOR DECEMBER

Mice and rats will move inside for warmth and shelter so check greenhouses and sheds and take precautions where you have seed, vegetables and bulbs stored.

Check that greenhouse heaters are working properly.

Prune apples and pears to improve their shape, encourage younger growth, remove disease and to control the amount of fruit bud they have. Don't prune fan, espalier and cordon trained trees as these should be summer pruned.

Plant up Amaryllis [Hippeastrum] bulbs inside. Use a soil based compost and water very sparingly to start with. As flowers and leaves appear, give more water.

Blackcurrants, if they were not done in the summer, can be pruned. Cut old wood to ground level.

HOMEMADE CHRISTMAS MINCEMEAT

Try this recipe for a tasty alternative to mass-produced mince pies. This makes about 2.75 kg

450g Bramley apples (cored, chopped, unpeeled)
225g shredded suet (can be vegetarian suet)
350g raisins
225g each of sultanas and of currants and of mixed candied peel
350g soft dark brown sugar
Grated zest and juice of 2 oranges and 2 lemons
50g whole almonds (in slivers)
4 teaspoons mixed ground spice
½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
Grated nutmeg
6 tablespoons brandy

Combine the ingredients except for the brandy; stir and mix very thoroughly. Cover with a cloth and leave in a cool place overnight. Cover the bowl with foil and place in the oven at 120°C for 3 hours. Remove and, as it cools, stir occasionally. When cold add brandy and place in clean, sealed jars. Store in a cool dark cupboard. Make up into mince pies; eat, share and enjoy!
